Kelly Waltemath

REALTOR • TEAM LEADER • MANAGING
MEMBER/OWNER • THE KELLY
WALTEMATH GROUP LLC

Kelly Waltemath still views every workday as different and special after a childhood tied to real estate and a seven-year career in the industry that began immediately after college. The young girl that grew up walking and biking in the neighborhoods her father and grandfather developed, eyeing the homes under construction with curiosity and enthusiasm, today specializes in new construction herself and is a Realtor and Managing Member/Owner of the Kelly Waltemath Group, LLC.

"Every aspect of the real estate business fascinates me and excites me," says Kelly. "I love everything about it—from interior design to flipping homes to frequently working with homebuilders to build custom homes from scratch. Seeing a client walk in a home and have that 'it's the one' face is the cherry on top."

After graduating LSU in 2014, Kelly joined Keller Williams and hasn't looked back. She has been a top producer at Keller Williams five years in a row and has consistently been in the top five percent of realtors in the Gulf States Region. More than a buying or selling agent, Kelly enjoys the business of real estate, growing her team and company just as her family did.

"I consider myself much more than a Realtor to my clients—I endeavor to be a friend for life," she says.
