MEET KELLY WALTEMATH WALL

Kelly's childhood was immersed in real estate. Growing up, she spent time walking the New Orleans neighborhoods developed by her father and grandfather. Real estate was in her blood and it eventually became Kelly's passion, hobby, and life long career choice. Today she is the fourth generation in her family's real estate interests.

After graduating LSU in 2014, Kelly joined Keller Williams and began working with the family development company. She has consistently been a top producer throughout and is often in the Top 5% of Keller Williams Realtors in the entire Gulf States Region.

The Kelly Waltemath Group helps clients buy, build, and sell on the North and Southshore every day. As a team, they are a one-stop shop, frequently helping clients buy, build, and sell at the same time. They have the connections, experience, expertise, and knowledge to know the market and are often aware of inventory even before it hits the market. Their team also includes top-notch sales, marketing, and transaction specialists to get your home sold as quickly as possible and for top dollar.

The Kelly Waltemath Group would love to have you as their next client!
